PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello EAOC!

If you missed this Wednesday's meeting at EAOC, you missed the largest turnout so far this new year! It makes a huge difference not only for you, but for EAOC to have our members in attendance. Let's keep the momentum moving forward.

The final numbers are in with only 12 members posting their company's gross revenue for 2022, and we exceeded 2021, with an increase of more than $10,000,000.00 from last year! Congratulations to everyone who has survived COVID and is moving forward during challenging times. We need our EAOC members more than ever to have a great, or even greater 2023.

Thank you to Amber Poston, who gave another great presentation and had us all thinking about how we may or may not intentionally have or show racial bias. We hope to hear more from Amber in her next presentation.

A warm welcome to our special guests this week! Tom Sweeting, Tracy Robert's guest from Pacific Shores Electric, is up for the classification of Residential Electrician. My guest, Ezra Leyton with Marquis Signature Properties, is up for the classification of Commercial Real Estate Broker. And Sammy Montoya's guest, Miguel with Miguel's Body Works, is up for the classification of Auto Body Shop. We will see you all next week!

Please try to arrive by 6:45 AM every Wednesday for networking, coffee, and a delicious breakfast, so we can hit the ground running at 7:00 AM. I hope I won't disappoint anyone next week with my presentation on recently completed sewer and drain repair projects.

Also, call in your Valentine's Day flower orders to Diana today, to get in for delivery next week. The big day is almost here!
