40 YEARS OF GLASS EXPERTISE AT YOUR SERVICE

After serving in the military, Gary Gregg of Creating With Glass worked for his brother-in-law at a fixture manufacture firm, dealing with architects and designers in creating custom fixtures.

Gary's wife, Carol, is very talented in cutting glass, so they started a side business in the early 80s. Gary and Carol went into fulltime business and have never advertised. They receive all their orders from referrals. Gary studied art and design so he does the sales, custom design and installation.

MEMBERSHIP MOMENT

Hello EAOC!

Getting to know each other has its benefits. One way to get to know each other a little better is by changing up where you have your breakfast each week.

I've often sat at the same table, well, only because it's a habit.

I selected a different seat this week so that I get to chat a little bit with members I don't really know.

It was odd at first because I wasn't at my normal seat. Yet, awesome, because I got to learn a little more about some of our newer members.

So let's switch things up the next couple of weeks, sit at a different table, strike up a conversation that may lead to finding out that we all really have more in common than we think.

Cheers, Gizi

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello EAOC!

We had a great turnout this week at the Green Parrot Villa! A warm welcome to my sponsored guest, Hector Aguirre of Boomers Insurance for the classification of Health Insurance Agent, specializing in Medicare Insurance. Also, we officially recognized our newest member, Quinton Fasola of Asure Software, for the classification of Payroll Services, sponsored by Sammy Montoya. Welcome aboard, Quinton!

Our presenter this week was Gary Gregg of Creating With Glass. Gary and his wife, Carol, have been creating, installing, and repairing copper foil beveled glass, glue chip, carved glass, shattered glass and mirror repair since the 80s. Also, we learned the major difference between the old lead glass vs. the new soldered glass windows. The next time you walk through Sleeping Beauty's Castle at Disneyland, or Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, take a moment to marvel at Gary's and Carol's creations.

New Game Alert: "Ace of Hearts"! This exciting game has been incorporated into our morning meetings, and allows us to have fun and win some great giveaways from our fellow members' businesses. Be sure to play next week! Some extra giveaways in our first game were donated by Yon Himelman with Atomy, including a nice foot cream, and several packages of Yellowtail were donated from my recent fishing trip.

NO MEETING NEXT WEEK. We hope everyone will have a relaxing 4th of July, and we will be in person on July the 12th at the Green Parrot Villa with Patrick Cecil with Merrill Lynch Financial Investment Planning.
